FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CELEBRATE MOTHER'S DAY WITH DIVI ZHENI (Wild Women) IN A CONCERT OF BULGARIAN WOMEN'S MUSIC

Allston, Massachusetts On May 13, 2007, at 12:30 pm enjoy a lively musical performance by Boston's own Divi Zheni, a women's chorus presenting Bulgarian Women's Music led by Artistic Director, Tatiana Sarbinska, internationally renowned soloist of Bulgaria's Pirin Ensemble.

What better way to Celebrate Mother's Day than with the soaring vocal harmonies and earth-inspired rhythms of Divi Zheni. Audiences will be riveted by songs of love and sorrow, humor and deep loyalties and much more from various regions of Bulgaria, and from Russia, Serbia and Georgia. The chorus will feature traditional works as well as pieces newly arranged by Tatiana Sarbinska. The name Divi Zheni, which means Wild Women, a loose translation from Bulgarian, was adopted with a lighthearted spirit by the founders in 2000.

Highlights include traditional village-style singing, choral arrangements, rocking rhythms and melodic accompaniment of Divi Zheni's Concert Orchestra led by vocalist and accordion player, Barbara Pixton. The audience is cordially invited to a reception with refreshments immediately following the concert.

The concert is being given to benefit the Holy Resurrection Bulgarian Orthodox Church, host to Divi Zheni's weekly rehearsals. Tickets at the door: $12 for adults, $9 for students/seniors and $30 per family. Holy Resurrection Bulgarian Orthodox Church, 62 Harvard Avenue, Allston, MA (at Farrington Street, between Brighton Avenue and Cambridge Street).
